KANCHEEPURAM

Brand and Visual Identity Guidelines

Version 1.0 | October, 2016

Our Institute's name¹ is:

✓ Indian Institute of Information Technology, Design and Manufacturing, Kancheepuram

Not: Do not...

- ⊘ Indian Institute of Information Technology Design and Manufacturing, Kancheepuram (... Miss the comma)
- ⊘ Indian Institute of Information Technology, Design and Manufacturing-Kancheepuram (... Use any other symbol other than comma before Kancheepuram)
- ⊘ Indian Institute of Information Technology Design & Manufacturing, Kancheepuram (... Use '&' in the Institute name)
- ⊘ Indian Institute of Information Technology, Design and Manufacturing (... Miss out Kancheepuram)
- ⊘ Indian Institute of Information Technology, Design and Manufacturing, Kanchipuram (... Use Kanchipuram instead of Kancheepuram)
- ⊘ Indian Inst of Info Tech, Design and Mfg, Kanchipuram (... Shorten the wordings)

Verbally, and in print, the only appropriate acronym is:

✓ IIITDM Kancheepuram

Use of '&' in the acronym is not permitted, except the text inside the Insignia.

When using this acronym verbally, it should be pronounced as “triple ai tee di em Kancheepuram”.

Insignia is designed to appear like a human flying high and achieving success. The lower half of the logo consists of intersecting trunks which symbolizes the highly interdisciplinary approach to education that the institute follows. The confluence of the three core branches with design is also communicated through this. The upper half of the logo is made such as to represent a lamp, which symbolizes enlightenment and wisdom. The gear in the background emphasizes on the manufacturing attribute of the courses offered by the institute. Together all these elements symbolize progressive thought, design thinking and imparting of a holistic and complete education which are the tools for making a smarter world for the future.
